Incidents of Interest

- On 6/9/22, a golf cart drove through the east gate (resident entrance) while the gate arm was down, breaking the gate. The driver was contacted nearby and transported to the hospital due to a possible medical event.

Blackhawk Police Services

Volunteers in Policing

- After over a two-year hiatus the volunteer program is back up and running. June 7th marked the volunteer's first day of service. 2 volunteers worked a 3-hour shift. Vacation house checks and speed deterrence (silent sentry) was the focus of the shift. Due to scheduling conflicts this was the only service for the month, however, 12 hours are currently scheduled for the month of July.

Notes from the Chief of Police

- Efforts are underway with American Asphalt to obtain a cost estimate for implementing white lines on certain roadways throughout the Blackhawk community. Unfortunately, we are still awaiting an estimate at this time.
