C. Pacheco Town Council

There was no Report.

D. Supervisor Federal Glover's Office

Dominic Aliano reported that Public Works will be performing road work on N. Buchanan Circle to Pacheco in the coming weeks. Alternate Ritter stated that the City of Martinez had performed some roadwork and was wondering if the County could match up to the City's roadwork on the County side. Mr. Aliano stated he would check into this and get back to the MAC.

Mr. Aliano stated that the County Health Department had released the vaccine mandates for restaurants and gyms. He stated in the next week as long as the numbers stay down they will release the mask mandate also.

Mr. Aliano stated that it has been quiet and has received no correspondences or request from the Pacheco residents.

5. Presentations

A. Contra Costa County Public Works Annual Report on LL-2 Zones 5, 18 and 75.

Mr. Aliano introduced Scott Anderson and Rochelle Johnson from Public Works Special District.

Scott Anderson gave a brief background of his work with the County's Special District. He stated the LL-2 Zone 5 area included the Grayson Creek Park and median from 2nd to Center. Funding in the 2020-2021 budget was mainly used for tree maintenance and planting new trees in the median. He reviewed the 2021-2022. He is proposing using funding to add mulch to tree wells in the median and tree maintenance and replace in Grayson Creek Park.

Mr. Anderson stated the LL-2 Zone 18 is the strip in front of Park Manor and along the back of Park's Manor along Temple. He stated most of the 2020-2021 budget was used for contractor to ensure the new trees establishing themselves. He reviewed the 2021-2022 budget. He is proposing adding mulch where needed and continued tree maintenance.

Council Member Pope requested a map of the zone area especially for the new Members. Alternate Ritter stated that maps would be useful. He requested to see the funding that was available for the medians. He felt there was a need for trees or some type of landscaping in the medians from Muir to Highway 4 including 2nd to Muir. Council Member Garcia felt it would be useful if they had the funding available so they knew what they had to work with and where the funding was spent in past years. Chairperson Robb suggested Public Works come back to a meeting in the near future with maps of the areas they are looking at, funding that has been used and how in the past 3-4 years and the funding that is still available.

It was the Consensus of the MAC to Have Public Works Special District Come Back to a Future Meeting After Providing Maps of Zone 5 and 18, Funding that Has Been Used and Where for the Past 3-4 Years and the Funding Still Available to the MAC for Review and Possible Ideas of Uses.
