4. Review the 2022 P&S Survey (Attachment 2; See Pgs. 6-21)
  - a. Public comments
    - i. Azi: Based on the survey, we need to determine how to get more responses based on participation. Asked Patrice to provide the history of those who have responded and the ones that have not.
    - ii. Patrice: Based on the previous surveys, CAB has requested those that are AB 109 funded to be included to receive the survey. Typically, we have received more responses from Community Based Organizations and less responses from our County Agencies. Provided an update on some of the agencies and their roles in helping the AB 109 population.
    - iii. Jill: Provided an update to make a correction regarding the Mental Health Evaluation Team (MHET). They are responding to an event after the crisis.
    - iv. Azi & Jill: Requested which agencies did not respond.
    - v. Patrice: Provided an update on a few that had not responded. Patrice offered to provide information regarding the questions on the survey.
    - vi. Azi: Asked to review the outcomes based on the survey. Based on responses the following challenges were housing, employment, behavioral health, and client engagement.
    - vii. The members and the public reviewed each question to determine to use or change for the new 2023 Survey.
    - viii. Azi: Asked if this can be added to the next agenda to revisit this item.
    - ix. Patrice: Will provide a list of questions based on the discussion to bring to the next agenda. As well as a list of questions for those in custody.
  - b. See video discussion for more information: <https://youtu.be/maDfPmxWf9Q>
