3. Presentation

a) California Highway Patrol (CHP)

- Officer Wilkenfeld asked if anybody had any questions about last month's report. Mentioned that sideshows are picking up and please call if you start to see cars collect in a location. A question was asked about people living in trailers on the street and Officer Wilkenfeld mentioned that he will begin to work on it with code enforcement. Another question was asked if videos of sideshows work and Officer Wilkenfeld responded that the video needs to see the drivers face and license plate in order for it to work.

b) Contra Costa County Sheriff's Office

- Not Present

c) Rodeo-Hercules Fire Protection District Report

- Not Present

d) John Sweet Unified School District (JSUSD)

- Report in Attachment

3. Supervisor Glover's Update – Dominic Aliano, District Representative

- Dominic Aliano, who is the District Representative for Supervisor Glover, reported that illegal dumping and code enforcement case have been taking up the majority of his work. The illegal dumping has gotten worse during the summer and because of that his case load has risen on illegal dumping.

4. Public Comments (2 Minutes per speaker)

- Jose Tarin – Wants to know the cost to put up signs that say what the fine is for illegal dumping and wants to know how to enforce on private property.
- Elizabeth Genai – Stated that she called 911 because of some complications that she was having and the response time was about five minutes and it was the longest five minutes of her life. She wants to keep the Rodeo Fire Station where it is because it would mean longer response times if it moves to Hercules.
- Sylvia Villa-Serrano – Mentioned that the Bay Front Chamber will host a community clean-up day.
- Delphine Smith – Mentioned that she is not happy with the amount of campers and activities that go on over at Troy's Club.

6. Items for Discussion and/or Action

A. REVIEW, DISCUSS, and VOTE

1. Contra Costa County Office of the Sheriff-Bayo Vista Basketball Courts for $800.00.

- Bob Nelson presented on the behalf of the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Department a grant request to help paint the basketball courts in the Bayo Vista community. Mr. Nelson informed everyone of the history behind the Contra Costa County Sheriff Substation in Bayo Vista, the resident deputy and the programs that they were doing because of a grant that the Contra Costa Sheriff's Office received. (A grant from a separated organization with no relation to the RMAC). Unfortunately, that grant ended but Mr. Nelson still wanted to help the Bayo Vista community by striping the basketball court with lines so that they can be used for basketball games.

- Councilmember Questions:

Councilmember Mahn – Asked is the grant will be managed by the YMCA and Mr. Nelson said no.

- Public Comment/Questions:

Lisa Alvarado – Asked why can't you apply for a new grant from the State? Mr. Nelson informed her that the grant was a one-time grant and that the Sheriff's Office cannot find another grant like this.

- Councilmember Comments:
