

Counties Care Holiday Food Fight

Since 2004, employees of Contra Costa and Solano counties have competed during the holiday season to raise funds for the Food Bank. It's a friendly competition, with the county that raises the most funds per employee winning the Big Apple trophy for one year. The trophy and bragging rights pass back and forth, but the real winners are the hungry of both counties. Over the decade since the Counties Care challenge began, the total amount raised by employees of both counties is $1,301,065.64.
