

CONTRA COSTA

One County – limitless options for advanced technologies, including UAVs

Center of the Northern California Mega-Region

- One hour to San Francisco, Silicon Valley and Sacramento, with easy access to Fresno and beyond.
- Two county owned airports serve the region; daily service from Concord to Burbank, with hangar/warehouse space and development opportunities available.
- 43.3% of Contra Costa adults have a bachelor's degree or higher, ongoing human capital investments in workforce training.
- Expedited local approval of commercial drone operations, testing opportunities at the Byron airport in a rural environment.
- Contra Costa is comfortable with innovative technologies in our daily environments – the County is home to GoMentum Station (<https://gomentumstation.net>), a public-private partnership that is the largest U.S. testing site for autonomous vehicle technology.
