Contra Costa Animal Services Offering Free Adoptions During Home for the Holidays Promotion

Promotion offered Dec. 5th-15th at CCAS' Martinez & Pinole adoption centers

Martinez, CA – Contra Costa Animal Services (CCAS) will be offering free adoptions of all available animals beginning Wednesday, December 4th, through Saturday, December 15th as part of their Home for the Holidays adoption promotion. Interested adopters can take advantage of this free adoption promotion by visiting CCAS' Martinez and Pinole adoption centers to meet the animals and adopt their new family member. Animals available for adoption can be viewed at www.ccasd.org.

“The holiday season is about spreading love and joy, and what better way to find love and joy than providing a loving home to a pet in need” said Steve Burdo, Community and Media Relations Manager for Contra Costa Animal Services. “ Whether you’ve been thinking about adopting, or you’re looking for the perfect gift for a family member, Adopting a pet from CCAS is most truly the gift that keeps on giving.”

The free adoption promotion does not include the cost of licensing and any refundable deposits for surgery.

Contra Costa Animal Services is the largest animal welfare organization in Contra Costa County. The department operates two shelters, in Martinez and Pinole, where they provide high-quality animal care services, shelter homeless, abandoned and lost animals, place animals in safe, caring homes, and provide education and services to enhance the lives of people and their animal companions. Additionally, the department's Field Services Division plays a crucial role in protecting the health and safety of all people and animals in our community through enforcement of state and laws, protecting the public from animal injury and working to prevent animal cruelty, abuse and neglect.
