WHY

- The United States Constitution requires all residents to complete the Census form every 10 years in a nationwide count.
- By law, the U.S. Census Bureau cannot share an individual’s responses with the public, state or local governments, immigration, or any other organization.
- Questionnaire takes about 15 minutes, with large households taking longer, and asks 9 questions about address, age, race, and relationship to other residents in the household. No citizenship question.

WHO

- One Census form should be completed for all residents in each household.

WHAT

- Starting in May 2020, Census workers begin going door-to-door to households that have not completed the Census to ask them to respond.

WHEN

HOW

All households receive a letter in the mail with instructions about how to take the Census through the following options:

- Online: By computer, tablet, or smart phone
- Phone: By a 1-800 number
- Paper: Households can request a paper form
