MEDIA ALERT: PG&E Says Contra Costa County No Longer Impacted by Public Safety Power Shutoff Event

(Contra Costa County, CA) – PG&E has notified County officials this afternoon that Contra Costa County is no longer facing a Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS) event this week, citing improved weather. PG&E says it will continue to monitor weather conditions.

The County had been preparing to respond to a PSPS event and remains ready to support residents. The County will share news, as information becomes available.
