

ORDINANCE NO. 2021-04

AN URGENCY ORDINANCE CONTINUING A TEMPORARY PROHIBITION ON CERTAIN EVICTIONS OF RESIDENTIAL AND COMMERCIAL TENANTS IN CONTRA COSTA COUNTY IMPACTED BY THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC AND CONTINUING A MORATORIUM ON CERTAIN RESIDENTIAL RENT INCREASES

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors ordains as follows:

Section 1. Findings.

- A. On January 30, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of a novel coronavirus that causes the disease named coronavirus disease 2019 (“COVID-19”), a public health emergency of international concern.
- B. On January 31, 2020, as the result of confirmed cases of COVID-19, the U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services declared a public health emergency nationwide.
- C. On March 3, 2020, Contra Costa Health Services announced the first case of local transmission of the virus causing COVID-19 in Contra Costa County.
- D. On March 4, 2020, Governor Gavin Newsom proclaimed the existence of a state of emergency in California under the California Emergency Services Act, Gov. Code § 8550 et seq.. As of July 1, 2020, there were more than 2.7 million cases of COVID-19 in the United States, resulting in more than 128,000 deaths, with 3,248 confirmed cases of COVID-19 in Contra Costa County, resulting in 77 deaths.
- E. On March 10, 2020, the Board of Supervisors found that due to the introduction of COVID-19 in the County, conditions of disaster or extreme peril to the safety of persons and property had arisen, commencing on March 3, 2020. Based on these conditions, pursuant to Government Code section 8630, the Board adopted Resolution No. 2020/92, proclaiming the existence of a local emergency throughout the County.
- F. The legislative bodies of a number of cities in Contra Costa County also adopted local emergency proclamations due to COVID-19 pursuant to Government Code section 8630.
- G. On March 16, 2020, the County Health Officer issued an order requiring County residents to shelter at their places of residence in order to slow community transmission of COVID-19, subject to exceptions for the provision and receipt of essential services while complying with social distancing requirements to the maximum extent possible. The County Health Officer extended the order on March 31, 2020, and on April 29, 2020.
- H. On May 18, 2020, the County Health Officer extended the shelter-in-place order, continuing restrictions on many activity, travel, and business functions but allowing a limited number of additional businesses to resume operating. On June 2, June 5, and June 16, 2020, the County Health Officer issued orders allowing additional businesses to resume operating. On July 11, 2020, in response to an increase in community transmission and illness caused by the virus that causes COVID-19, the County Health Officer issued an order amending the June 16, 2020, order, increasing the restrictions on certain business and activities presenting a high risk for disease transmission.

- I. On August 26, 2020, September 4, 2020, and September 14, 2020, the County Health Officer issued orders allowing a limited number of additional businesses to resume operating. The County Health Officer issued orders amending the September 14, 2020, order on October 27, 2020, and November 4, 2020. On December 6, 2020, the County Health Officer and some other Bay Area health officers implemented, in advance of State requirements, the Regional Stay at Home Order issued by the California State Health Officer. The State implemented the Regional Stay at Home Order on December 17, 2020, and lifted the order on January 25, 2021. The County is currently in the purple tier of the State's Blueprint for a Safer Economy.
- J. On March 16, 2020, the Governor issued Executive Order N-28-20, which authorized local jurisdictions to suspend the evictions of residential and commercial tenants for the non-payment of rent if the non-payment was a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.
- K. On June 30, 2020, the Governor issued Executive Order N-71-20, which extended the authority of local jurisdictions to suspend the evictions of residential and commercial tenants for the non-payment of rent if the non-payment was a result of the COVID-19 pandemic through September 30, 2020.
- L. On April 6, 2020, the Judicial Council of California adopted Emergency Rule 1, effectively suspending action on or entry of default in eviction cases, and suspending judicial foreclosures, except where necessary to protect public health and safety.
- M. On April 21, 2020, the Board of Supervisors adopted Ordinance No. 2020-14, an urgency ordinance temporarily prohibiting evictions of residential and commercial real property tenants in the County impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic and establishing a moratorium on certain rent increases.
- N. On May 26, 2020, the Board of Supervisors adopted Ordinance No. 2020-16, an urgency ordinance continuing and modifying a temporary prohibition on evictions of tenants in Contra Costa County impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, and continuing and modifying a residential rent increase moratorium.
- O. On July 14, 2020, the Board of Supervisors adopted Ordinance No. 2020-20, an urgency ordinance continuing a temporary prohibition on evictions of residential and certain commercial real property tenants in Contra Costa County impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, and continuing a moratorium on certain residential rent increases.
- P. The Judicial Council voted on August 14, 2020, to terminate the eviction protections in its Emergency Rule 1. This rule terminated September 1, 2020.
- Q. On August 31, 2020, the Governor signed Assembly Bill 3088, the COVID-19 Tenant Relief Act of 2020 (the Act). The Act extends eviction protections for residential tenants, including mobilehome tenants, who are experiencing a financial hardship related to COVID-19.

- R. The Act prohibits residential tenants from being evicted for failure to pay rent because of a COVID-19-related hardship occurring between March 1 and August 31, 2020, as long as the tenant provides the landlord with a written declaration of hardship. Residential tenants who experience a new COVID-19-related hardship between September 1, 2020, and January 31, 2021, are also protected from eviction through this date as long as they pay 25 percent of the rent due by January 31, 2021.
- S. Senate Bill 91 extends the protections of the Act through June 30, 2021.
- T. On September 23, 2020, the Governor issued Executive Order N-80-20, which extends, through March 31, 2021, the authority of local jurisdictions to suspend the evictions of commercial tenants for the non-payment of rent if the non-payment was a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.
- U. The COVID-19 pandemic and associated state and local public health orders are resulting in a loss of income to a widespread portion of the local population that depend on wages or business income, hindering their ability to pay rent and leaving them vulnerable to eviction, and in higher medical expenses for certain Contra Costa County residents.
- V. Contra Costa County and the cities within the County are also experiencing a housing affordability crisis, which is driving homelessness and displacement of residents.
- W. Many of the County’s renters are rent-burdened, paying over 30 percent of their income on rent, and some renters are severely rent-burdened, paying over 50 percent of their income on rent, which leaves less money for families to spend on other necessities like food, healthcare, transportation, and education.
- X. Housing displacement due to rent increases and evictions occurring during the local emergency would hinder individuals from complying with state and local public health orders and would lead to increased spread of COVID-19, overburdening the healthcare delivery system and potentially resulting in greater loss of life.
- Y. There is an urgent need for the County to continue a temporary prohibition on certain residential evictions and certain commercial evictions, and continue a temporary moratorium on certain residential rent increases, to protect the health, safety, and welfare of its residents in light of the emergency declared regarding the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Z. The Act authorizes local jurisdictions to amend existing urgency ordinances to continue prohibitions on certain types of residential evictions, including no-fault evictions. Without local protections in addition to statewide eviction protection for residential renters, eviction notices are likely to increase in light of the COVID-19 pandemic.
- AA. On September 22, 2020, the Board adopted Ordinance No. 2020-25, which prohibits a landlord from terminating a residential tenancy for a no-fault reason; prohibits a landlord from terminating a residential tenancy on the basis that a tenant allowed an unauthorized occupant to live in the dwelling unit, if the occupant is the tenant’s immediate family member living in the dwelling unit as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic; and prohibits a landlord from increasing rent on a residential real property.

- BB. On September 29, 2020, the Board adopted Ordinance No. 2020-26, which prohibits a landlord from terminating specified residential tenancies, prohibits a landlord from increasing rent on a residential real property, and authorizes a temporary prohibition on evictions of certain commercial tenants impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic.
- CC. On November 17, 2020, the Board adopted Ordinance No. 2020-29, which continued, through January 31, 2021, the prohibitions on specified residential and commercial evictions that were included in Ordinance Nos. 2020-25 and 2020-26.
- DD. As authorized by the Act, this ordinance extends the residential eviction protections in Ordinance No. 2020-29 through June 30, 2021. The Board finds, pursuant to Civil Code section 1946.2 and Code of Civil Procedure section 1179.05(b), that: the just cause for termination of a residential tenancy under this urgency ordinance is consistent with Civil Code section 1946.2; this urgency ordinance, by prohibiting a landlord from terminating a residential tenancy on the basis that a tenant allowed an unauthorized occupant to live in the dwelling unit if the occupant is the tenant's immediate family member living in the dwelling unit as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, provides additional tenant protections that are not prohibited by any other provision of law; and this urgency ordinance is more protective than the provisions of Civil Code section 1946.2.
- EE. As authorized by Executive Order N-80-20, this ordinance also extends the small-business eviction protections in Ordinance No. 2020-29 through March 31, 2021.
- FF. This ordinance is retroactive to February 1, 2021.

Section 2. Definitions. For purposes of this ordinance, the following words and phrases have the following meanings:

- (a) "Commercial real property" means any developed real property that is used as a place of business for a small business or a non-profit organization.
- (b) "Immediate family" means a person's spouse, domestic partner, children, grandchildren, parents, or grandparents.
- (c) "No fault cause for eviction" means any eviction for which the notice of termination of tenancy is not based on an alleged fault of the tenant.
- (d) "Non-profit organization" means an organization that is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) or Section 501(c)(4) of the United States Internal Revenue Code.
- (e) "Rent" means the financial obligation or monetary payment a tenant owes a landlord for the occupancy or use of real property whether by written or oral agreement.
- (f) "Residential real property" includes a mobilehome park and a mobilehome park space or lot.
- (g) "Small business" has the meaning set forth in Government Code section 14837(d)(1)(A).

- (h) “Tenancy” means the lawful occupancy of residential or commercial real property by agreement on a month-to-month basis or for a fixed term in excess of 30 days.

Section 3. Prohibitions on Certain Residential Evictions.

- (a) Through June 30, 2021, a landlord shall not terminate a residential tenancy for any no fault cause for eviction.
- (b) Through June 30, 2021, a landlord shall not terminate a residential tenancy on the basis of a tenant allowing an unauthorized occupant to live in the dwelling unit, if the occupant is a member of the tenant’s immediate family living in the dwelling unit as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.
- (c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this section limits a landlord’s ability to terminate a residential tenancy for any of the following reasons:
 - (1) The termination is necessary to protect the landlord’s health or safety or any other tenant’s health or safety.
 - (2) The termination is necessary where the owner or a member of the landlord’s immediate family intends to occupy the residential real property.
 - (3) The termination is to remove the residential real property from the rental market, but only when authorized by Government Code section 7060 et seq.
- (d) To the extent state law is more protective of a residential tenancy than this section, those state law provisions shall apply to the residential tenancy. Nothing in this section shall be construed to supersede any applicable requirements in Civil Code section 1946.2 pertaining to relocation assistance or rent waiver.

Section 4. Prohibitions on Certain Commercial Evictions.

- (a) Through March 31, 2021, a landlord of commercial real property shall not terminate a tenancy for failure to pay rent if the tenant demonstrates that the failure to pay rent is directly related to a loss of income or out-of-pocket medical expenses associated with the COVID-19 pandemic or any local, state, or federal government response to the pandemic. For the protections of this subsection (a) to apply, a tenant must demonstrate through documentation or other objectively verifiable means:
 - (1) Loss of income from: (i) job loss; (ii) layoffs; (iii) a reduction in the number of compensable hours of work; (iv) a store, restaurant, office, or business closure; (v) a decrease in business income caused by a reduction in opening hours or consumer demand; (vi) the need to miss work to care for a homebound school-age child or a family member infected with coronavirus; or (vii) other similarly-caused loss of income, where the conditions listed in (i) through (vii) resulted from the COVID-19 pandemic or related guidance or public health orders from local, State, or federal authorities; or

- (2) Out-of-pocket medical expenses for themselves or their immediate family related to the COVID-19 pandemic.

“Adequate documentation” of lost income or out-of-pocket medical expenses from the COVID-19 pandemic includes but is not limited to a declaration signed by the tenant under penalty of perjury, letters from employers citing the COVID-19 pandemic or related government action as the basis for termination of employment or reduced work, employer paycheck stubs, bank statements, or letters or notifications from schools in which the tenant has a dependent enrolled regarding COVID-19-related closures that affected the tenant’s income.

The tenant must notify the landlord in writing before the rent is due, or within a reasonable period of time afterwards not to exceed 14 days, that the tenant needs to delay all or some payment of rent because of an inability to pay the full amount due to reasons related to COVID-19.

- (b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this section limits a landlord’s ability to terminate a tenancy if the termination is necessary to protect the landlord’s health or safety or any other tenant’s health or safety.
- (c) A landlord’s failure to comply with this ordinance shall render any notice of termination of tenancy, where the termination would be in violation of this ordinance, void. Any notice of termination served on a tenant during the COVID-19 pandemic must contain the reason for the termination of the tenancy. Any notice of termination served on a tenant during the COVID-19 pandemic must also include a notice of the tenant’s rights under this ordinance. A tenant eligible for protection under this ordinance must provide written notice of that eligibility to the landlord within 14 days after receiving a notice of termination of tenancy from the landlord.
- (d) Through March 31, 2021, a landlord may not charge or collect a late fee for unpaid rent due from a commercial real property tenant who demonstrated loss of income or out-of-pocket medical expenses as required under this ordinance.
- (e) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a commercial real property tenant who demonstrated loss of income or out-of-pocket medical expenses as required under this ordinance or any prior urgency ordinances governing commercial evictions shall pay all past due rent no later than May 31, 2021, unless the landlord agrees to a longer repayment period. If a tenant at a place of business did not pay rent in April 2020 or May 2020 pursuant to Ordinance No. 2020-14, and the place of business is not a small business or non-profit organization, then the tenant shall pay all past due rent for those months no later than September 30, 2020, unless the owner agrees to a longer repayment period. This ordinance does not relieve a commercial real property tenant of the obligation to pay rent and does not restrict a landlord’s ability to recover rent due, and shall not prevent a commercial real property tenant who is able to pay all or some of the rent due from paying that rent in a timely manner.

Section 5. Moratorium on Residential Rent Increases.

- (a) A landlord may not increase rent on a residential real property through June 30, 2021.
- (b) A residential real property that is exempt from the rent limits imposed by Civil Code section 1947.12 or Civil Code section 1954.50 et seq. is exempt from this section.
- (c) This section does not apply to a residential real property where one or more scheduled rent increases occur pursuant to a written rental agreement that was entered into before March 16, 2020.
- (d) This section does not apply when a unit becomes vacant and the landlord sets the initial rent for a new tenancy.

Section 6. Remedies.

- (a) The provisions of this ordinance may be asserted as an affirmative defense in an unlawful detainer action.
- (b) If a landlord attempts to recover possession or recovers possession of residential real property or commercial real property in violation of this ordinance, retaliates against a tenant for the exercise of any rights under this ordinance, or attempts to prevent a tenant from acquiring any rights under this ordinance, the tenant may institute a civil proceeding for injunctive relief, money damages of not more than three times actual damages (including damages for mental or emotional distress), and whatever other relief a court deems appropriate. If damages are awarded for mental or emotional distress, the award shall only be trebled if the trier of fact finds that the landlord acted in knowing violation of or in reckless disregard of the provisions of this ordinance. The prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to order of the court.

Section 7. Supersedes. This ordinance supersedes Ordinance No. 2020-29 and is retroactive to February 1, 2021. Ordinance No. 2020-14 applies to eviction notices, and unlawful detainer actions based on those notices, served or filed between March 16, 2020, and May 25, 2020. Ordinance No. 2020-16 applies to eviction notices, and unlawful detainer actions based on those notices, served or filed between May 26, 2020, and July 13, 2020. Ordinance No. 2020-20 applies to eviction notices for residential real property, and unlawful detainer actions based on those notices, served or filed between July 14, 2020, and August 31, 2020. Ordinance No. 2020-20 applies to eviction notices for commercial real property (as defined in Ordinance No. 2020-20), and unlawful detainer actions based on those notices, served or filed between July 14, 2020, and September 30, 2020. Ordinance No. 2020-26 applies to eviction notices for residential real property, and unlawful detainer actions based on those notices, served or filed between September 1, 2020, and November 16, 2020. Ordinance No. 2020-26 applies to eviction notices for commercial real property, and unlawful detainer actions based on those notices, served or filed between October 1, 2020, and November 16, 2020. Ordinance No. 2020-29 applies to eviction notices, and unlawful detainer actions based on those notices, served or filed between November 17, 2020, and January 31, 2021.

Section 8. Applicability. Government Code section 8634 authorizes the Board of Supervisors to promulgate countywide orders and regulations necessary to provide for the protection of life and property during a local emergency. Pursuant to Government Code section 8634, the regulations in this ordinance shall apply to cities within Contra Costa County and unincorporated Contra Costa County. To the extent that the governing body of a city enacts an ordinance or adopts a regulation that governs the subject matter of this ordinance, that city ordinance or regulation shall supersede this ordinance within that jurisdiction.

Section 9. Severability. If any provision or clause of this ordinance or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held to be unconstitutional or to be otherwise invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect other ordinance provisions or clauses or applications thereof that can be implemented without the invalid provision or clause or application, and to this end the provisions and clauses are declared to be severable. The Board of Supervisors hereby declares that it would have adopted this ordinance and each provision thereof irrespective of whether any one or more provisions are found invalid, unconstitutional, or otherwise unenforceable.

Section 10. Declaration of Urgency. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency ordinance necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety of the County. The facts constituting the urgency of this ordinance's adoption are set forth in Section 1.

Section 11. Effective Date. This ordinance becomes effective immediately upon passage by four-fifths vote of the Board of Supervisors. This ordinance shall expire and be repealed as of June 30, 2021, unless shortened or extended by the Board of Supervisors based on the existence of a local emergency.

Section 12. Publication. Within 15 days after passage, this ordinance shall be published once with the names of the supervisors voting for and against it in the East Bay Times, a newspaper published in this County.
