Tips and Reminders for Voting Safely in the September 14th Recall Election

The Contra Costa Elections Division would like to remind residents that the Division is taking great steps to make sure that voting in the September 14th Recall Election is as safe as possible. Health officials have said that voting by mail is the safest option. Voters are encouraged to return their ballot by mail postmarked on or before Election Day or drop their ballot off at one of the County's 36 official drop boxes.

"For everyone's safety, we are urging voters to vote by mail and to reserve in-person voting for those that require in-person services," said Clerk-Recorder-Registrar Deborah Cooper, the County's top Elections Official. "Voting by mail protects voters, poll workers and our volunteers by limiting personal contact. In person voting locations will follow health protocols, which may cause delays and lines due to social distancing. The easiest and fastest way to vote in this election is to cast the ballot that we sent to you returning it by mail or into one of our official ballot boxes located throughout the County."
