Supervisor Federal Glover Reimagines Annual Youth Summit as UpliftED Youth Empowerment Conference

(Pittsburg, CA) - Supervisor Federal Glover is thrilled to announce the return of his annual youth summit, now reimagined as the UpliftED Youth Empowerment Conference. This highly anticipated event is dedicated to uplifting, inspiring, and empowering the youth of Contra Costa County. The UpliftED Youth Empowerment Conference will take place on Saturday, September 23, 2023, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Los Medanos College located at 2700 E. Leland Rd. Pittsburg, CA. 94565.

Supervisor Glover, in collaboration with the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors, is committed to providing young individuals with an extraordinary experience that enhances their personal and academic growth while preparing them for future careers and college opportunities.

"We are excited to bring back the annual youth summit in a reimagined format," Supervisor Federal Glover stated. "The UpliftED Youth Empowerment Conference will create an immersive and empowering environment for our youth, fostering essential skills, building resilience, and encouraging positive social and academic development."

The UpliftED Youth Empowerment Conference promises a day filled with enriching activities, educational workshops, and inspiring keynote presentations. Participants, ranging from sixth through twelfth grades, will have the unique opportunity to engage with local dignitaries, mentors, community leaders, and dynamic speakers, all committed to empowering and uplifting the next generation of leaders.

Highlights of the UpliftED Youth Empowerment Conference include:

Keynote Presentations: Dynamic speakers will deliver transformative keynote speeches, addressing crucial topics such as student empowerment, mental health awareness, resilience, and promoting positive school culture. These empowering presentations will leave a lasting impact on the young attendees.

Interactive Workshops: The conference offers a diverse range of interactive workshops designed to equip youth with essential life skills, enhance career development, and promote positive youth development. Topics include financial literacy, personal branding, social justice activism, and more. Participants will gain valuable insights and practical tools for success.

UpliftED Fest: The festival-like atmosphere will feature booths from various organizations, providing participants with opportunities to engage in activities, explore career pathways, and learn about volunteer opportunities. The UpliftED Fest aims to create a vibrant and inspiring space for youth to connect and explore diverse interests.

Harmony United Live DJ experience: Get ready for an electrifying show by a top DJ! Join us for uplifting beats and inspiring messages as this musical celebration will reinforce the power of unity and the importance of youth voices in driving positive change.

Career & College Fair: The "Pathways to Success" Career & Education Fair will allow attendees to interact with local employers, esteemed educational institutions, and career experts. This unique opportunity will provide valuable guidance as young individuals explore diverse career options and educational pathways.

Networking Opportunities: Participants will have the opportunity to connect with like-minded peers, mentors, and professionals, expanding their network of resources within the community. This networking aspect aims to encourage support and collaboration among the youth.

Supervisor Federal Glover invites all youth grades 6-12 in Contra Costa County to join the UpliftED Youth Empowerment Conference on September 23rd. The event promises to empower youth, ignite passions, and set them on a path of success, personal growth, and community engagement.
