Would You Like To Serve On The Contra Costa County Airport Land Use Commission? Board of Supervisors Appointee 2

(Martinez, CA) – The County is seeking individuals who are interested in serving on Contra Costa County's Airport Land Use Commission (ALUC) as the Board of Supervisors Appointee 2 (one vacancy). The Commission's role and responsibilities are to:

- Formulate land use policies that restrict the development of lands to ensure compatibility with planned operations of public-use airports;
- Review the general plans of local agencies for consistency with the Airport Land Use Compatibility Plan; and
- Review proposed modification to the airport master plans for consistency with the Airport Land Use Compatibility Plan.

Commission members are expected to attend at least one meeting a month. Regular meetings of the ALUC are held on the third Thursday of each month at 7 p.m. in the Zoning Administrator Meeting Room, 30 Muir Road, Martinez, CA 94553. Background study, occasional field trips, and extra meetings are sometimes necessary. Members shall serve without compensation. During the term of office, each member shall reside or work in Contra Costa County.

There are seven members on the ALUC. The current vacancy is for one commissioner that is an At-Large position representing the public and appointed by the other six members of the Commission. Appointed members are required to comply with the Conflict-of-Interest reporting requirements in State law. The term of office of each member is four years and until the appointment and qualification of their successor.

Application forms are available at the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors by visiting the County webpage at www.contracosta.ca.gov/3418 or by calling (925) 655-2000. Return completed
